

Exchange Network on Exposure Scenarios (ENES) 4th meeting

16-17 May 2013
ECHA Conference Centre, Helsinki

Jack de Bruijn
Director
Risk Management, ECHA

Exchange Network on Exposure Scenarios

- Jointly organised by Cefic, Eurométaux, CONCAWE, Fecc and A.I.S.E. with ECHA.
- Participants: manufacturers, downstream users, industry associations, Member State competent & enforcement authorities and European Commission.
- Delegate folder.

Exchange Network on Exposure Scenarios

- Part of a series of events to support the ACT NOW! REACH 2013 campaign.
- Looking ahead, the CSR/ES Roadmap
- Follow-on from ENES3 (20-21 November 2013, Brussels)
 - Harmonisation of structure and content to aid communication
 - Converting substance-related information into information for mixtures
 - Specific Consumer Exposure Determinants (SCEDs)

Programme: Thursday, 16 May

Session 1

The CSR/ES Roadmap.
Explanation and Q&A Session.

Coffee break

Session 2

Harmonising exposure scenarios for communication.

- ECom
- Short titles for exposure scenarios

Lunch

Session 3

Mixtures

Examples of developments in guidance and tools

Four Breakout Groups

- Output: What essential actions needed, plan for ENES5.

Reception (close at 19:00hrs)

Programme: Friday 17 May

Session 4 Recap on Day 1

Session 5 Specific Consumer Exposure Determinants (or SCEDs)

The concept explained.

3 Sector examples.

3 Parallel breakout groups (different themes)

Output: Reaction to what's being developed to enable further progress and alignment to meet expectations.

Session 6 Conclusions and next steps

- Key learning points
- Sharing/dissemination of the outcome
- Looking forward to ENES5

Lunch (close)

General administration:

- Badge
- Lunch & coffee breaks
- Technical equipment
- Photographer
- Emergency

Have an informative and enjoyable ENES4.

Please contribute.

Thank you

